Chairperson report- Chris

Thank you for your service attendance and support. Your service plays a vital role to our fellowship and helps the alcoholic that suffers as well as our local members by carrying the message of what the MBAIAA and local communities have to offer. By your communication and participation your groups are helping us uphold the 3 legacies: recovery, unity, and service. We hope this monthly meeting is helpful, transparent, and can be used as a conduit in transmitting information and events that are exciting and useful to your groups and members, as well as anything your groups would like us to consider in supporting your meetings and the suffering alcoholic that has not found us yet. Central office is a resource available to be used, and working together as a fellowship helps our primary purpose.

Treasurer report- Jana

July gross $12,639.02

April Exp. -$7,301.01

Net $5,338.01

Income higher due to Unity day no longer having a separate account, $1500 distributed to Salinas Fellowship and MBAIAA to keep $1000 for start up expenses (prudent reserve) for Unity Day next year. Looking at Unity Day financials from last year we only took in ~$200 less this year.

Half of Hawaii raffle funds deposited in July, Hawaii trip expenses will reflect in August Treasurers report.

Central office admin report: Jana

Hawaii Raffle wrap-up: We took in $4,300, trip costs approximately $2000, so remainder will go to our fellowship.

Meeting location change for Tuesday CSUMB Meeting. New location: 500 8th street, Oak Hall, Marina. Close to old location. Map available on website.

Sunday Meditations meeting at church of the wayfarer time change. Was 7:00pm now at 6:30pm.

New literature available at central office: "Take Me to Your Sponsor", from the grapevine, has jokes cartoons and cute stories, and is very light hearted. Also "Our Great Responsibility: Bill W. General Service Conference Talks", this is the first new book from GSO since 1989.

A Thursday afternoon volunteer is still needed at central office, 1:30pm-5:30pm. 2 people could share this commitment and switch off if needed. Walter the volunteer coordinator has been filling in.

ICYPAA in Boston next weekend, program is available online.

Committee reports:
